

Annika Tidén

annika.tiden@hyperisland.se

WORK EXPERIENCE

Seller, Systembolaget Viksjö, Stockholm 2019 Present

I currently work part-time at Systembolaget Viksjö as a seller. A workday consists of stocking shelves, working at the cash register and helping customers as well as answering their questions about food and drinks.

Shift leader, instructor and event organizer, Filmstaden Sergel, Stockholm 2017 2019

Worked both full and part-time at Filmstaden Sergel, as a shift leader, instructor and event organizer. As a shift leader I lead the shifts and my colleagues, handling customers as well as conflicts. Also included administrative work. As an event organizer I organized an event according to the customers wishes.

McCann Stockholm 2017

Worked over the summer at ad agency McCann Stockholm with a brief for the City of Stockholm. The project was executed in group, and consisted of developing, putting together and presenting a campaign for the customer.

Summer jobs 2014 2016

EDUCATION

Hyper Island, Stockholm 2020 2022

Digital Media Creative - Vocational diploma.

Stockholm University, Stockholm Spring 2020

Cinema studies 1. History, theories, aesthetics and features from early films to cinema today.

Berghs School of Communication, Stockholm Fall 2017

Berghs Intro – Basic orientation and introduction of communication, PR and process management.

Rudbecksskolan, Stockholm 2014 2017

High school education in the aesthetics program, specialization in aesthetic & media.

Elementary school 2004 2014

OTHER MERITS

Nominated for Best Trust & Respect in Filmstaden Awards 2019. Selected by my colleagues and managers. "Nomination is given to a person who can be described as trustworthy, unprejudiced and respectful. Who is fair and always keeps their promises. A helping hand who shows lots of compassion and understanding to their colleagues."

Swedish (first language), English (fluent), German (basic knowledge).